

Michael Ngige

127-20106,

Elburgon, Kenya

5th September, 2024

Human Resources Department

Plan International

Port of Sudan, Sudan

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the EiE Specialist role at Plan International. As an advocate for children's rights and gender equality, I am drawn to your organization's mission of addressing the root causes of the challenges facing girls and vulnerable children, especially during humanitarian crises. I am eager to contribute to your efforts to provide quality education in emergency settings and ensure that the specific needs of girls are addressed.

With experience d in conflict-affected regions, especially post-election violence of 1997 and 2007/2008 in Kenya Rift Valley region. It has been my passion to serve those in crisis that I was in back then. I am deeply committed to ensuring that children, particularly girls, have access to education even in the most challenging environments. My understanding of key issues such as Disaster Risk Reduction, resilience, and rights-based approaches, and other humanitarian frameworks, positions me to make a meaningful impact in this role.

Additionally, my background as a teacher has grounded me in child protection principles, child safeguarding, and referral systems aligns with Plan International's commitment to protecting children from harm. and other stakeholders to influence policies and practices that promote the well-being of children, especially girls. My familiarity with the challenges in Sudan and my desire to help address these challenges make me particularly excited about the opportunity to work with Plan International.

I am confident that my skills, experience, and passion for education and child protection in humanitarian contexts make me a strong candidate for this position. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your efforts in delivering quality Education in Emergency interventions.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to join Plan International's team and contribute to its inspiring mission.

Sincerely,

Michael Ngige